MINUTES OF PROCEEDINGS

Parliamentary Year 3, No. 107, Session 6

Meeting of the Parliament

Wednesday 8 May 2024

Note: (DT) signifies a decision taken at Decision Time.

The meeting opened at 2.00 pm.

1. Portfolio Questions: Questions on Rural Affairs, Land Reform and Islands, on NHS Recovery, Health and Social Care, and then on Social Justice, were answered by Ministers.

2. Implementing the Cass Review in Scotland: Meghan Gallacher moved S6M-13090—That the Parliament welcomes the report submitted by Dr Hilary Cass on gender identity services for children and young people; recognises the report as a valid scientific document, and calls on the Scottish Government to implement the recommendations of the report that are applicable to NHS services in Scotland.

The Minister for Public Health and Women's Health (Jenni Minto) moved amendment S6M-13090.4—

As an amendment to motion S6M-13090 in the name of Meghan Gallacher (Implementing the Cass Review in Scotland), leave out from “implement” to end and insert “thoroughly examine the recommendations of the NHS England commissioned report, and its applicability to NHS Scotland services, and to update the Parliament on the outcome before the summer recess.”

After debate, the amendment was agreed to ((DT) by division: For 71, Against 30, Abstentions 20 (including 1 proxy vote)).

Jackie Baillie moved amendment S6M-13090.2—

As an amendment to motion S6M-13090 in the name of Meghan Gallacher (Implementing the Cass Review in Scotland), insert at end “, and further calls on the Scottish Government to publish all papers relating to the multi-disciplinary clinical team work in assessing Dr Cass’s recommendations, and to urgently prepare a progress report on the existing strategy for reducing long waits for children and young people to access specialist gender services.”

After debate, the amendment was agreed to (DT).

The motion, as amended, was agreed to ((DT) by division: For 113 (including 1 proxy vote), Against 7, Abstentions 0).

Accordingly, the Parliament resolved—

That the Parliament welcomes the report submitted by Dr Hilary Cass on gender identity services for children and young people; recognises the report as a valid scientific document; calls on the Scottish Government to thoroughly examine the recommendations of the NHS England commissioned report, and its applicability to NHS Scotland services, and to update the Parliament on the outcome before the summer recess, and further calls on the Scottish Government to publish all papers relating to the multi-disciplinary clinical team work in assessing Dr Cass’s recommendations, and to urgently prepare a progress report on the existing strategy for reducing long waits for children and young people to access specialist gender services.

3. Supporting Scotland’s Colleges: Liam Kerr moved S6M-13091—That the Parliament agrees that the Scottish Government’s approach to funding and resourcing Scotland’s colleges must change in response to the existential threat that its previous approach has created; notes the role that colleges play in powering the regional and national economy, while operating without the necessary flexibility and support that they need, and recognises that colleges are vital to Scotland’s economy and play a crucial role in supporting learners, creating flexible routes into employment, developing a skilled workforce and delivering sustainable economic growth.

The Minister for Higher and Further Education; and Minister for Veterans (Graeme Dey) moved amendment S6M-13091.3—

As an amendment to motion S6M-13091 in the name of Liam Kerr (Supporting Scotland’s Colleges), leave out from “agrees” to end and insert “recognises that colleges are vital to Scotland’s economy and play a crucial role in supporting learners, creating flexible routes into employment, developing a skilled workforce and delivering sustainable economic growth; understands that the process of post-school education reform provides opportunities to further enhance the role that Scotland’s colleges play in the economy and society, including enhancing their role in developing the green skills that Scotland needs for the just transition, and agrees that any proposals for changes to funding must be clear from where else in the Scottish Government’s budget the resource would be taken, particularly in the context of 14 years of UK Government austerity.”

After debate, the amendment was agreed to ((DT) by division: For 61 (including 1 proxy vote), Against 58, Abstentions 0).

Pam Duncan-Glancy moved amendment S6M-13091.1—

As an amendment to motion S6M-13091 in the name of Liam Kerr (Supporting Scotland's Colleges), insert at end “; expresses its concern at the £12 million cut in student support funding proposed by the Scottish Funding Council (SFC); agrees with the assessment in Audit Scotland's briefing, Scotland's colleges 2023, that 'The Scottish Government and the SFC urgently need to build on their ongoing work with colleges and help them become sustainable now', and calls on the Minister for Higher and Further Education to get round the table with colleges and trade unions before the summer recess, with a view to facilitating a solution that will end the industrial dispute.”

After debate, the amendment was disagreed to ((DT) by division: For 60, Against 61, Abstentions 0).

The motion, as amended, was agreed to ((DT) by division: For 62, Against 59 (including 1 proxy vote), Abstentions 0).
