Dear Paul

Scottish Government's proposed amendments to rent control provisions, Housing (Scotland) Bill

As set out the Committee's Stage 1 Report on the Bill, we will be holding further evidence sessions with stakeholders to consider the amendments to the rent control provisions you previously set out to Parliament. These sessions will take place on Tuesday 28th January.

To enable proper consideration by our witnesses and members we would ask that amendments giving effect to the proposals you set out to Parliament are lodged as soon as possible. It would be ideal if they were available no later than Wednesday 15 January.

Yours sincerely,

Ariane Burgess
Convener, Local Government, Housing and Planning Committee
