Dear Edward,

The Heat Network (Market Framework) Regulations SI

I am writing to follow up my letter of 4 November to you which enclosed a notification about the UK Government's Heat Network (Market Framework) Regulations 2024. At that point, the final SI was not available in the public domain, so I promised to inform you when it was laid and whether it was consistent with the notification the Scottish Government submitted to the Committee.

I can confirm that the SI has now been laid by the UK Government and its contents are in keeping with the terms of the notification.

The SI is available at: <https://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukdsi/2025/9780348266474/contents>.

I am copying this to the Convener of the Delegated Powers and Law Reform Committee.

Yours sincerely,

Alasdair Allan
