Context

Ashleigh Dunn's six year term of office as a Member of the Standards Commission comes to an end on 3 March 2025.

The Scottish Parliamentary Corporate Body (SPCB) is seeking to appoint, with the agreement of the Scottish Parliament, a new Member who will ideally take up office on 4 March 2025.

Statutory framework

The Standards Commission for Scotland (the Commission) is a body corporate established under the Ethical Standards in Public Life etc. (Scotland) Act 2000. It is supported by the Scottish Parliamentary Corporate Body (SPCB).

The Commission's role is to encourage high ethical standards in public life. It promotes and enforces the Codes of Conduct for Councillors and Members of Devolved Public Bodies and issues guidance to councils and devolved public bodies. The Commission adjudicates on cases of alleged contravention of the Codes of Conduct referred to it by the Commissioner for Ethical Standards in Public Life in Scotland, and on finding a contravention it has statutory powers to impose sanctions.

The Commission is required to submit annually to the Parliament, a general report on its activities. The Commission must also, in respect of each 4-year period, lay before the Parliament, a strategic plan setting out how it proposes to fulfil its functions during that time.

The Act provides that the Commission will have not fewer than 3 members appointed by the SPCB with the agreement of the Parliament and that the SPCB will appoint one of the members as the convener.

The Convener of the Commission is Suzanne Vestri and the Members are Helen Donaldson, Ashleigh Dunn, Morag Ferguson and Lezley Stewart.

Further information about the Commission can be found at-

<http://www.standardscommissionscotland.org.uk/>

Finance and staffing

The SPCB pays any expenses properly incurred by the Commission, approves its annual budget and indemnifies the Commission in respect of any liabilities incurred in the exercise of its functions.

The Commission employs four members of staff who are based in Edinburgh.

The Commission's annual budget for 2024/25 is £363k.

The Executive Director is the Accountable Office for the Commission and is directly answerable to the Parliament in the exercise of the following functions-

- a) signing the accounts of the expenditure and receipts of the Commission
- b) ensuring the propriety and regularity of the finances of the Commission; and
- c) ensuring that the resources of the Commission are used economically, efficiently and effectively.

Key responsibilities and duties

The role of the Commission is outlined above. The Member will work with the Convener and the other Members to promote and encourage high ethical standards in public life and assist with the running of the Commission.

In particular you will -

- promote and enforce observance of the Codes of Conduct for Councillors and Members of Devolved Public Bodies,
- consider reports received from the Commissioner for Ethical Standards in Public Life in Scotland and determine whether a breach has occurred

An on-screen version of the application form can be found on our website at

<https://www.parliament.scot/about/how-parliament-works/parliament-organisations-groups-and-people/officeholders/member-of-the-standards-commission-for-scotland>

The application form is split into two sections to ensure anonymity during short-listing. Part A contains personal information, such as your name and address - this is not seen by the selection panel. Part B is the only part of your application the selection panel will receive.

Each application is assessed in the same way, against the same agreed criteria for the appointment in question. "Criteria" means the key skills and knowledge we think you need to be able to do the job. The evidence and examples that you provide in Part B of your application form, are the only information we will use in deciding whether to shortlist you for interview.

Please do not send us your Curriculum Vitae or any supporting documents as they will not be considered. This is to ensure that all application forms are assessed equally.

Before completing part B of the Application Form, you should read the information provided above under the headings 'Key responsibilities and duties' and the 'Person Specification'. This is to make sure that you know what the appointment involves and the criteria that will be used to assess the applications.

Completing Part B of the Application Form

Part B of the application form is your chance to demonstrate that you have the skills, experience and knowledge required. Please address each criterion by providing specific examples to support your statements. You must provide evidence of what you did, the reasons for your action, what happened, what you took into account and the outcome.

The selection panel will not make any assumptions about your skills and abilities, for instance through a job title.

You should use no more than 250 words per criterion.

Political Activity Form

The information provided in the political activity form will remain confidential until the panel has agreed who it wishes to nominate. At this time, the information will be released to panel members to make them aware of any activity.

The information provided by applicants regarding their political activity is not a determining factor in the selection process.

Additional Information

Please indicate if you have ever been convicted of any offence (other than minor motoring offences) which are not spent in accordance with the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 or if any charges are outstanding; been adjudged bankrupt or made a composition or arrangement with your creditors over the past 10 years; been dismissed from any office or employment over the past 10 years; ever been disqualified from acting as a company director or in the conduct of a Company; ever been a director, partner or manager of a company which has gone into liquidation, receivership or administration; any other facts to declare which you feel might be raised in public in future in relation to your suitability to hold appointment for which you are being considered, for example, because they could be presented as a conflict of interest.
