Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-13532 Alexander Stewart: Simon Howie Butchers Extends Long-standing Stocking and Product Relationship with Asda—That the Parliament understands that Perthshire butchers, Simon Howie, has extended its long-standing relationship with Asda with a new deal to stock its barbeque range across Asda's Scottish stores; further understands that the arrangement follows the expansion of Simon Howie's range in April 2024 when Asda listed its new breakfast products; believes that, in addition to the Simon Howie steak burger that is stocked all year round, Simon Howie will also see Asda listings for eight additional barbecue products; notes that the butchers' Gastro Burger won the Meat Product of the Year award at the Scotland Food and Drink Excellence Awards in 2023, so the company is confident that this could also be a success with Asda customers; acknowledges that Asda, which has branches in Alloa, Stirling, Dalgety Bay, Dunfermline and Perth, among others in the Mid Scotland and Fife region, says that it is proud to source the very best in Scottish food and drink and is always looking to expand its range from quality suppliers, with more than 350 new products from new and existing Scottish suppliers joining its shelves over the last year alone, and congratulates both Simon Howie and Asda on what it sees as this highly successful, long-term partnership.

community, to provide opportunities through sport, and to improve lives through football, while developing a first-class football club that will provide the tools and skills for everyone to succeed in life, and echoes the club's motto, "Life is like football, you need goals".

Supported by: Kevin Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, James Dornan*, Kenneth Gibson*, Pam Duncan-Glancy*, George Adam*, Jackie Dunbar*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Annabelle Ewing*, David Torrance*, Stuart McMillan*

S6M-13526 Alasdair Allan: Ena MacDonald Book Publication—That the Parliament congratulates Ena MacDonald on the publication of her book, Born to Croft; understands that Ena launched her book in June 2024 at the Hosta tractor rally; further understands that the book is an informative publication on Ena's experience of growing up in Kyles, and the agriculture sector before modern machinery; considers Ena to be an icon of the crofting community, and commends her for promoting sustainable agriculture and preserving traditional crofting methods.

S6M-13525 Sandesh Gulhane: NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde Celebrating Success Staff Awards—That the Parliament congratulates the winners of NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde's annual Celebrating Success Staff Awards, which took place on 30 May 2024; understands that the awards recognise the hard work and dedication of staff and volunteers; notes that awards were presented in four categories, namely Local Staff Awards, Excellence Awards, the Chair's Award of Excellence and the William Cullen Prizes for Innovation and Education; further understands that amongst the Excellence winners were a team at Leverndale Hospital for its walking initiative, Meander for Mental Health, a group of Gartnavel Royal volunteers who established a new hospital hub café, the team at Queen Elizabeth University Hospital's transoral robotic service, which is an innovative procedure to treat throat cancer, and the Renfrewshire Care Home Nursing Support Team, which has been working to prevent unnecessary admissions to hospital from care homes; considers that these are just some examples of the staff and volunteers who go above and beyond to care for patients on a regular basis, and commends all of the winners and nominees for their contribution to Scotland's health and social care service. R

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Douglas Ross*, Pam Gosal*, Bill Kidd*, Meghan Gallacher*, Miles Briggs*, Brian Whittle*, Edward Mountain*, Stuart McMillan*

S6M-13524 Pam Gosal: Bearsden and Milngavie Highland Games 2024—That the Parliament commends the organisers of the Bearsden and Milngavie Highland Games, which is set to take place on 8 June 2024, at the West of Scotland Football Club; notes that the event, now in its 51st year after commencing in 1973, offers a family-friendly day out that attracts visitors from all across Scotland and the world, and is the single largest day out in East Dunbartonshire; understands that the day will feature traditional highland games attractions like pipe bands, heavies, arm wrestling, Scottish dancing, and the World Haggis Hurling Championship; acknowledges the volunteers that work incredibly hard in the lead-up to the games to make sure that the event is successful; wishes success to everyone involved in supporting the games, and appreciates the charitable efforts of visitors who support the Funding Neuro charity, which supports innovative and alternative methods to treat people with neurological conditions.

Supported by: Brian Whittle*, Annie Wells*, Alexander Stewart*, Stuart McMillan*, Craig Hoy*, Colin Beattie*, Murdo Fraser*, Meghan Gallacher*, Bill Kidd*, Michelle Thomson*, Miles Briggs*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Marie McNair*, Alex Rowley*

S6M-13522 Ross Greer: "Show Israel the Red Card" Campaign—That the Parliament welcomes the "Show Israel the Red Card" campaign, which has the aim of drawing attention to what it considers to be the injustice of allowing Israeli athletes to participate in international sporting events, while Palestinians are often unable to participate, it understands, due to the Israeli occupation and what groups such as Human Rights Watch and Amnesty International have referred to as the system of apartheid enforced on Palestinians by the state of Israel; congratulates protesters who gathered outside Hampden Park on 31 May 2024 to object to Israel's continued participation in international football events, despite what it believes is an ongoing genocidal assault on Gaza; notes that the efforts of campaigners resulted in the match between Israel and Scotland being played behind closed doors and a 45-minute delay to kick-off; further notes with concern reports that, since 7 October 2023, at least 265 Palestinian sportspeople have been killed in Israeli attacks on Gaza and the West Bank, with dozens more still missing; believes that Israel is in violation of the Olympic Charter, which states that "every individual must have access to the practice of sport, without discrimination of any kind in respect of internationally recognised human rights", and calls, therefore, on the relevant international bodies to immediately suspend Israel from all major sporting events.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Ariane Burgess*

S6M-13521 Sandesh Gulhane: Glasgow Woman Marks 40 Years of Volunteering—That the Parliament recognises, on National Volunteers' Week 2024, the contribution of Margaret Anderson, of Glasgow, who is marking 40 years of volunteering at the Burrell Collection; understands that Margaret, a former history teacher, started volunteering at the museum in 1984; notes that Margaret gives free guided tours of the collection to visitors, interviews and trains new volunteers, and assists with volunteer policy and procedures at the museum, and commends Margaret for what it sees as her remarkable dedication to her volunteering role and for sacrificing her time and skills over the last 40 years to support what it sees as one of the city's national treasures.

Supported by: Liam Kerr*, Pam Duncan-Glancy*, Kevin Stewart*, Meghan Gallacher*, Bill Kidd*, Alexander Stewart*, Pam Gosal*, Douglas Ross*, Miles Briggs*, Brian Whittle*, Stuart McMillan*

S6M-13520 Annabelle Ewing: Babcock Rosyth's Festival of Engineering—That the Parliament recognises the two-day Festival of Engineering recently held by Babcock International Group at the facility at Rosyth Dockyard for engineers in the making; further recognises that more than 300 local primary school children attended the festival to explore the kinds of skills that they will need for a career in science, technology, engineering or mathematics; understands that the festival showcased past innovations and modern-day developments under the theme of "Celebrating Scottish Engineering Excellence"; notes that the festival encouraged its young guests to explore the hi-tech world of engineering, robotics, advanced manufacturing and virtual reality; thanks Babcock for hosting the event, and wishes the primary pupils all the very best in their future endeavours.

S6M-13519 Annabelle Ewing: Benarty Community Shop Raises over £51,000 for Local Groups—That the Parliament recognises the success of Benarty Community Shop, its volunteers and hardworking staff, on raising more than £51,000 for local community groups and organisations; understands that the shop has been open for over seven years, and has raised a total of £51,726 over that time; notes that the amounts raised and donated are displayed within the shop for all to see; recognises that organisations to have previously benefited from donations include Benarty Foodbank, Benarty Heritage Group, and Kids Come First; thanks all those who have donated to the shop over the last seven years, and wishes them all the best for the future.

S6M-13508 Meghan Gallacher: Schools in Central Scotland Awarded Gold School Sport Awards by Sportscotland—That the Parliament congratulates Newarthill Primary School and Chatelherault Primary School on their 2024-26 Gold School Sport Awards; notes that the Award is in recognition of the schools' achievements in putting sport at the heart of their planning, decision-making, practice and ethos; highlights what it sees as the continuous commitment by the schools to increase opportunities and engagement for young people in physical education, school sport and leadership; understands that this is a national initiative funded by the National Lottery, which encourages sporting links between schools and their surrounding communities, providing pathways to life-long participation in sport, and recognises that these two schools join 17 others across the Central Scotland region that have achieved a Gold School Sport Award.

S6M-13507 Alexander Stewart: Fundraising Success at the Sparkling Afternoon Tea Event for Stroke Association Scotland—That the Parliament welcomes the news that a recent event in memory of a loving husband and father, who tragically passed away due to a stroke, was a fundraising success; understands that the Sparkling Afternoon Tea event, initiated by the Bundy family and held in the Westfield Lounge, at Falkirk Stadium, managed to raise over £3,000 for Stroke Association Scotland; understands that this event and the ongoing campaign to change stroke diagnosis guidelines in memory of the late Anthony Bundy that is led by his son, James, himself a Falkirk Councillor, attracted a huge attendance on 2 June 2024; further understands that there has been clear support for Scotland to take the lead in empowering people and saving lives by adopting #BEFAST as Scotland's public health campaign for stroke; congratulates James' mother, Selena Bundy, for all the event's organising work; acknowledges that Anthony Bundy would have been celebrating his 54th birthday on 3 June 2024; wishes James all the very best in his #BEFAST campaign; commends the Bundy family on their tireless work in this regard, and expresses its sincere thanks to all the local residents who attended on the day and took part in the fundraising.

S6M-13506 Alexander Stewart: Futures Institute at Dollar Academy Launches the International Sustainability Diploma—That the Parliament welcomes the news that the Futures Institute at Dollar Academy (FIDA) has launched a new qualification; understands that the International Sustainability Diploma is open to learners across Scotland and beyond, and, in addition to Dollar Academy, will be piloted in a number of schools such as Alloa Academy, Speyside High School, Braes High School (Falkirk) and Clifton Hall School (Edinburgh) during the 2024-25 session, ahead of a wider launch in 2025-26; believes that the Diploma programme offers what FIDA calls "a different style of learning and teaching, aligned with the recommendations of the Hayward Review (2023)"; understands that it is rooted in the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and co-designed with experts from industry and universities, and that students learn through developing solutions to real-world problems; considers that, in addition to building students' knowledge and understanding of the complex social, environmental, economic and political aspects of sustainability, the Diploma develops important skills such as independent research, problem-solving, critical thinking, collaboration and communication; further considers that entrepreneurship is also a "golden thread" that runs throughout the programme, and this element is co-delivered with the University of Stirling; believes that students learn about the crucial

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
