Decision on Taking Business in Private

The Convener (Ariane Burgess): Good morning and welcome to the 21st meeting in 2022 of the Local Government, Housing and Planning Committee. We have received apologies from Mark Griffin. I ask all members to ensure that their mobile phones are on silent, and that all other notifications are turned off during the meeting. Marie McNair and Annie Wells join us online.

The first item on our agenda is a decision on whether to take items 3, 4 and 5 in private. Item 3 is an opportunity for us to consider our approach to our report on the allotments inquiry. Item 4 is a chance to consider correspondence from the Scottish Government on national planning framework 4. Item 5 is an opportunity for the committee to consider its approach on pre-budget scrutiny. Do members agree to take those items in private?

Members indicated agreement.

Subordinate Legislation

Town and Country Planning (Fees for Applications) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2022 (SSI 2022/190)

The Convener: The second item on the agenda is consideration of the Town and Country Planning (Fees for Applications) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2022. This is a negative instrument, and there is no requirement for the committee to make any recommendations on it.

Do members have any comments on the instrument?

Nobody has any comments to make. Is the committee agreed that it does not wish to make any recommendations in relation to the instrument?

Members indicated agreement.

The Convener: As that was the final public item on our agenda, I close the public part of the meeting.

10:01

Meeting continued in private until 11:25.

This is the final edition of the Official Report of this meeting. It is part of the Scottish Parliament Official Report archive and has been sent for legal deposit.
