

Health, Social Care and Sport Committee

2nd Meeting, 2022 (Session 6), Tuesday, 18 January 2022

Inquiry on health and wellbeing of children and young people

Note by the clerk

Introduction

1. At its meeting today, the Health, Social Care and Sport Committee will take evidence from stakeholders as part of its inquiry into the health and wellbeing of children and young people.
2. There are two evidence sessions today. The first sessions will focus on mental health and child and adolescent mental health services (CAMHS). The second session will focus on the health and wellbeing of care experienced children and young people.

Background

3. At its work programme discussion on 5 October 2021, the Health, Social Care and Sport Committee agreed to hold an inquiry into the health and wellbeing of children and young people.
4. The Committee subsequently agreed that the aim of the inquiry was to address key issues affecting the health and wellbeing of children and young people including:
  - Child poverty (including the Scottish Government's current child poverty delivery plan), inequality and adverse childhood experiences;
  - Issues affecting care experienced young people;
  - Mental health, access to Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services and the importance of early intervention; and
  - Health and wellbeing in schools

Structure of the inquiry

5. The Committee issued a call for evidence on 2 November 2021 which closed on 7 December 2021. The Committee sought views on:

- What are the key issues around health and wellbeing for children and young people in Scotland?
- What are the current challenges with improving the health and wellbeing of children and young people over the next 5 years
- What offers the best opportunity for improving the health and wellbeing of children and young people over the next 5 years
- How does addressing poverty lead to improved health and social care outcomes?

6. The Committee received 96 responses which can be viewed here: Published responses for Inquiry into the Health And Wellbeing of Children And Young People - Scottish Parliament - Citizen Space

7. The Committee's inquiry consists of five sessions in January and early February 2022:

11 January 2022	Panel 1: Evidence session with stakeholders
18 January 2022	Panel 2: Evidence session with stakeholders Panel 3: Evidence session with stakeholders
