Choice of new Deputy Convener

Overview

1. This paper explains the procedure for choosing a new Deputy Convener mid-way through the session, following the resignation (or removal from office) of the previous Deputy Convener, or the resignation of that person as a member of the committee.

Eligibility

2. When committees were established at the beginning of the session, the Parliament agreed that only members of the Scottish National Party were eligible to be chosen as Deputy Convener of the Economy and Fair Work Committee.

Procedure

3. The Convener will invite the nomination of a member of the Scottish National Party for the deputy convenuehip. Committee members may nominate themselves or another committee member. There is no requirement for nominations to be submitted in advance of the meeting or to be seconded.
4. Committee members will then be invited to choose the nominated person as Deputy Convener.
